

New Directors Elected onto Board

The Mechanicsburg Chamber Board of Directors welcomes new incoming directors Ashlee Altland (Diakon Adoption and Foster Care), Michael Giordano (Giordano Law) and Courtney Woznek (Comfort Suites Carlisle). They were elected at the Annual Dinner and will serve four year terms.

Ashlee Altland, Recruitment and Family Development Specialist II, Diakon Adoption and Foster Care:

Ashlee received her Bachelors degree in Sociology from Penn State University in 2004. Since then, she has worked in various community outreach programs, primarily with at-risk youth to improve the community at large. She has worked at Diakon Adoption & Foster Care since 2006 both as a Casemanager and most recently as a Recruitment and Family Development Specialist. Her education and experience continue to allow her to recognize community need and facilitate collaboration for improvement as she participates both personally and professionally in various local organizations.

Michael Giordano, Attorney & Counselor at Law, Giordano Law:

In 2007, after years of working in New York City in the banking and insurance industries and then for several large multinational law firms, Michael C. Giordano opened his own law firm to serve the needs of seniors, the elderly, and incapacitated individuals in the Mechanicsburg area and the Blauvelt area of Rockland County, NY. Michael is available to visit clients in their homes across PA and NY, when necessary. His practice focuses on Elder Law, Trusts, Wills and Estates, VA Benefits Claims and Social Security Disability Benefits. In addition to being a lawyer, Michael is also a Nationally Certified Guardian.

Courtney Woznek, Director of Sales, Comfort Suites Carlisle:

Courtney Woznek received her Bachelor's Degree in Marketing in 2006 from East Carolina University. After moving to Pennsylvania, she returned to HACC to study Hospitality Management and upon graduation was hired as the Director of Sales at the Comfort Suites in Carlisle. Courtney continues to strive for excellence in the hospitality industry and foster relationships through her active participation in various local organizations and clubs.

Ashlee Altland

Michael Giordano

Courtney Woznek