Did you miss the Chamber Annual Dinner & General Membership Meeting?

A special thank you to Penn Harris Hotel, Trademark Collection by Wyndham for hosting our annual event. The facility, food, and service were outstanding.

We were pleased to present our 2025 Charity of Choice - Highmark Caring Place with a check for $1,475.06, a product of efforts from the Chamber Golf Outing held in September. The Highmark Healthcare Company will match the donation dollar for dollar, so it will go twice as far.

We were honored to have the Washingtonburg Chapter of the Sons of the American Revolution present our nation's colors. A wonderful way to kick off our observation of the America250 celebrations to take place throughout 2026.

The evening culminated with an enlightening presentation from Kris Hoellen, Executive Director of the B&O Railroad Museum. Not only did Kris educate everyone on the history of the B&O Railroad, but also highlighted how the railroad continues to shape today's economy and society. American Railroading celebrates its 200th anniversary in 2027 and the B&O Railroad Museum is leading the recognition.

PSP Youth Camp Accepting Applications

The Pennsylvania State Police (PSP), in collaboration with the Pennsylvania National Guard and the Pennsylvania American Legion, is now accepting applications for its annual youth camp. The Elmer Hafer–American Legion–State Police–National Guard Youth Camp will take place June 7–13, at Messiah University in Mechanicsburg.

The six-day program is for teenagers ages 15 to 17 who are interested in exploring careers in Pennsylvania law enforcement or the military. Cadets will take part in a wide range of hands-on learning experiences and physical fitness training designed to build their understanding of law enforcement as well as their confidence, teamwork, and leadership abilities.

The camp is staffed by members of the PSP, the Pennsylvania Army National Guard, and the American Legion. At the conclusion of the program, three cadets will each receive a $1,000 scholarship.

Candidates should be physically fit, in good health, and maintain a strong academic record. Cadets are sponsored by local American Legion posts, so there is no cost to participate.

More information is available at pa-legion.com, where applicants can access the online application.

Looking for Summer Work?

PennDOT is looking to hire college students to supplement its permanent workforce from May through August.

The job typically entails seasonal maintenance work, crash system input and analysis, and maintenance and custodial services at roadside rest facilities. Many students also perform laboring and flagging duties in maintenance organizations and at highway worksites.

To be eligible for consideration, candidates must be a Pennsylvania resident or currently enrolled full time or part time in a two-year degree, bachelor's degree or advanced degree program at a Pennsylvania college or university. They also must be in good academic standing (as defined by a GPA of 2.0 or higher), and at least 18 years of age.

The hourly rate is $17.38. Interested applicants apply online here. Non-student summer positions may also be available.

America250PA Scholarships Available

To mark our nation's 250th anniversary, America250PA is offering $250,000 in Semiquincentennial Scholarships to Pennsylvania high school seniors who plan to continue their education at a state college or university.

A total of 25 scholarships, each valued at $10,000, will be awarded for the 2026-27 academic year. The program is a great opportunity for students to receive support as they pursue higher education in Pennsylvania.

Students and families can find more information and application details here.

Deadline Approaching for PennDOT “Innovations Challenge”

How can artificial intelligence (AI) improve work zone safety? That's the latest Pennsylvania Department of Transportation “Innovations Challenge” for high school students.

Students are asked to develop a concept for the use of AI in work zones to dramatically improve safety for work crews and motorists. The concept should take into consideration cost-benefit information, statewide deployment implications and public outreach.

Regional winners will be invited to present their solutions to a panel of judges, who will determine the statewide winners. Teams must submit entries by Jan. 30 for a chance at a prize. Rules and submission information can be found here.

TFEC's Fund for Women & Girls and Unstoppable You Ministries to Co-Host Free Webinar Focused on Preventing Human Trafficking in South Central PA

Community members looking to better understand how to prevent human trafficking and strengthen safety in their communities are invited to attend a free virtual webinar on Wednesday, Jan. 28, from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Hosted by TFEC's Fund for Women & Girls in partnership with Unstoppable You Ministries, the conversation will focus on practical, prevention focused approaches that move beyond awareness and toward connection.

The webinar, titled Prevention Through Connection, will bring together survivors with lived experience, advocates, law enforcement and community partners from across South Central Pennsylvania to explore how stronger relationships, supportive spaces and coordinated community networks can reduce vulnerability and help prevent exploitation before it begins. The event is supported by WellSpan Health and Highmark Wholecare.

"Human trafficking thrives in isolation," said Jennifer Doyle, president and CEO of The Foundation for Enhancing Communities. "TFEC is investing in education like this because prevention starts when people feel seen, supported and connected. By strengthening community awareness and relationships, we can reduce vulnerability, support survivors and help ensure exploitation cannot take root in our region."

That commitment to prevention through education and connection is shared by Unstoppable You Ministries, which works directly with individuals and communities impacted by trafficking.

"Prevention starts long before exploitation occurs," said Jennifer Foxworthy, founder and CEO of Unstoppable You Ministries, "By strengthening connections and understanding risk factors, communities can play a critical role in reducing vulnerability and supporting those who may be at risk."

Human Trafficking Is a Global and Local Issue

Human trafficking is a widespread and often hidden crime. The International Labor Organization estimates that on any given day, 27.6 million people worldwide were experiencing forced labor and or commercial sexual exploitation. While trafficking is a global issue, it also happens locally and often goes unrecognized.

According to the Office of Trafficking in Persons within the U.S. Administration for Children & Families, human trafficking does not require movement. People can be recruited and trafficked within their own communities and even within their own homes. Traffickers often hold positions of trust, including family members, friends, romantic partners, employers or job recruiters.

The Jan. 28 webinar aligns with the national 2026 Human Trafficking Prevention Month theme, which emphasizes prevention through connection. The conversation will focus on listening to and checking in on isolated individuals, creating safe and supportive spaces, strengthening community networks and building futures where exploitation cannot take root.

The event is offered at no cost through the support of TFEC's Fund for Women & Girls and event sponsors WellSpan Health and Highmark Wholecare.

"Unstoppable You Ministries believes collaboration over competition will be the only way we can make a difference in the fight against this horrible nightmare," said Foxworthy, "We must all come together."

Help Is Available

If you or someone you know may be experiencing human trafficking, help is available. For immediate assistance, call the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888. The hotline is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, in more than 200 languages. All calls are confidential and answered live by trained anti trafficking advocates.

Registration is required. To learn more or register, visit <https://www.tfec.org/event/human-trafficking-awareness-2026-webinar/>.

Topics

Many employers and claimants have difficulty understanding the process UC uses to determine an employee's eligibility for benefits after voluntarily leaving or being discharged from a job. This presentation explains how the service center discovers the person quit or was discharged, the fact-finding process, burden of proof, the factors that are considered when making a determination, and appeal rights.

Our seminar will explain the process the UC Service Center follows when investigating and issuing determinations relating to quits and discharges, including:

- What are the steps taken in the fact-finding process?
- How is a ruling issued without fact-finding information from a party?
- What factors determine if a separation is a quit or a discharge?
- What determines burden of proof?
- How are certain exceptions under the federal Trade Readjustment Act factored into determinations?
- What additional steps are available if there is a disagreement with the determination?

Questions & Answers

Our skilled professionals will be available to answer your questions and help you to better understand everything about the UC program.
