Aspiring Teachers Take Note

A state program that provides stipends to qualified student teachers in the Commonwealth is now accepting applications, according to the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA).

The PA Student Teacher Support Program provides $10,000 to eligible student teachers and up to $2,500 to cooperating teachers who will be working with and mentoring student teachers throughout the student teacher experience. Program recipients must commit to teaching in Pennsylvania for three years following the completion of their teaching certification.

Pennsylvanians who will be student teaching in the fall and spring semesters of the 2026-27 academic year are encouraged to apply. Stipends are awarded on a first-come, first-served basis, based on the date and time a completed application is received.

Learn more at pheaa.org/StudentTeacher.

Donate Life Month

April is Donate Life Month, an opportunity to raise awareness about the growing need for organ donation across the Commonwealth and the country. According to Donate Life PA, 16 people on average die each day while waiting for a life-saving organ transplant.

Across the country, more than 100,000 people are waiting for a transplant to save their lives, and every eight minutes, another person's name is added to the national waiting list. In Pennsylvania alone, more than 6,000 people are on the waiting list for a life-saving organ transplant.

About 5 million Pennsylvanians have added the donor designation to their driver's license, learner's permit or state identification card, but this represents only half of those eligible to register. If you'd like to register as an organ donor, you may sign up here. You are also encouraged to let your loved ones know of your wishes.

For more information about organ donation, visit donatelife.org.

Stay Alert in Work Zones

This week, April 20-24, is National Work Zone Awareness Week, a time to remind drivers to be cautious, alert and respectful while traveling through areas of roadway and bridge construction. This year's theme is "Safe Actions Save Lives."

When you encounter work zones, PennDOT offers the following tips: drive the posted work zone speed limit; stay alert and pay attention to signs and flaggers; maintain a safe distance around vehicles; use flashers if traveling slowly; avoid distractions; and be patient.

State law requires motorists to travel with their headlights on in all posted work zones, not just active work zones. Daytime running lights are not sufficient; drivers must have their headlights on to also activate their taillights.

Drivers also should be aware that interstate work zones with a project cost exceeding $300,000 will have a speed-monitoring device to alert motorists of their speed prior to entering the work zone.

For more information about work zone safety, click here.

Voter Registration Deadline May 4

Pennsylvanians who are not already registered to vote but wish to participate in the May 19 primary election should be sure to register no later than Monday, May 4.

To be eligible to vote in the primary, you must be a citizen of the United States for at least one month before the election; a resident of the election district in which you register to vote for at least 30 days before the election; and at least 18 years of age on or before the date of the primary. Under state law, only voters registered as Republicans or Democrats may vote for candidates in the primary election.

Citizens may register to vote online here or visit your county voter registration office. Not sure of your registration status? Check it here.

Voters who prefer to vote by mail-in or absentee ballot have until May 12 to apply for the ballot and until 8 p.m. on May 19 to return it. For more information, click here.

Make Your Voice Count in Local Government

April 22 marked Local Government Day in Pennsylvania, a reminder of the important role local officials play in shaping daily life. From community development and public safety to decisions that affect how we live and do business, local government has a direct impact on every resident.

One way you can participate in your local government is by attending county commissioner meetings. In Cumberland County, meetings are held every other Wednesday at 1:30 p.m. at the Cumberland County Courthouse, 1 Courthouse Square, Carlisle, in the Board of Commissioners Hearing Room, and are also available online via Zoom.

For those in York County, meetings are held at 10 a.m. on the first and third Wednesday and, when applicable, the fifth Wednesday of each month in the Commissioners Meeting Room on the second floor of the York County Administrative Center, 28 E. Market St., York.

My satellite office is also located in the York County Commissioners suite and is open every Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Stop by and say hello. We want to hear from you.

For township, borough and city meetings, residents should check their local municipality website for schedules and information. Staying engaged helps strengthen transparency, accountability and the future of our communities.

THE FOUNDATION FOR ENHANCING COMMUNITIES

Grant Applications Now Open to Support South Central Pennsylvania Nonprofits

The Foundation for Enhancing Communities (TFEC) is now accepting applications for Grant Cycle 2, offering funding opportunities to nonprofits serving South Central Pennsylvania.

Eligible nonprofits can review guidelines and apply at www.tfec.org. The application deadline is Friday, May 1, 2026. Nonprofits with questions about application or eligibility for available competitive grants can learn more by emailing grants@tfec.org.

These funds support programs that strengthen families, expand access to education and health care, address basic needs, protect the environment and enrich communities through the arts.

“Every grant awarded represents an investment in our community,” said Jennifer Doyle, president and CEO of TFEC. “When local nonprofits have the resources they need, they can respond to real challenges, meet people where they are and create lasting impact.”

Grant Cycle 2 is open to eligible nonprofits serving Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Lebanon and Perry counties, as well as the Dillsburg area. Funding priorities reflect the charitable goals of donors who partner with TFEC to make a difference close to home.

“When nonprofits thrive, our communities thrive,” said Stefani McAuliffe, vice president of community impact at TFEC. “In 2025 alone, more than $9 million in grants helped organizations expand services, launch new programs and reach more people. That investment strengthens families, supports economic stability and improves quality of life across South Central Pennsylvania.”

Community change begins with people who care. TFEC is powered by private generosity, not government funding, which means individuals, families and businesses can shape the future of their own neighborhoods. By starting a charitable fund, donors can turn their values into lasting impact and strengthen the place they call home. To learn how to begin, connect with Kim Alvarez, Vice President of Philanthropy at TFEC, at philanthropy@tfec.org.

Topics

The UC Service Center is often contacted about what to do when a person refuses work. This presentation explains the application of Section 402(a) of the PA UC Law (Refusal of Suitable Work). Discussion includes the employer's responsibilities regarding notification that a job offer has been made to both the Claimant and the service center, the factors used in suitable work determinations and appeal rights.

Our seminar will guide you through the process of informing the UC Service Center of such offers. A few of the important points we will explain include...

- How an employer should notify us of a refusal to accept a job offer
- How the UC Service Center will investigate the job offer
- What factors determine if a job offer is indeed "Suitable"
- What exceptions exist to such offers and how we apply exceptions
- What additional protections an employer has when placing an offer through the PA CareerLink® System
- How important time deadlines can affect the determination

The UPMC Kidney Transplant Program at UPMC Harrisburg Awarded ELITE Status from INTERLINK

The Kidney Transplant Program at UPMC Harrisburg recently achieved ELITE status from INTERLINK COE Networks & Programs as part of its Programs of Excellence transplant network. ELITE is the highest designation within the network and is awarded to only a small number of transplant programs nationwide after peer comparisons across key performance measures.

INTERLINK COE Networks & Programs (Interlink Health) is a managed care organization that develops Centers of Excellence (COE) networks for high-cost, low-frequency medical procedures. It specializes in identifying top-performing providers for transplants, cancer care, and complex surgeries to improve patient outcomes while lowering costs for payors.

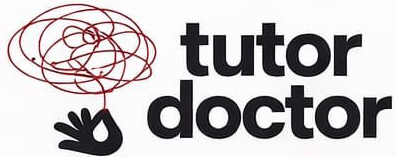

“Achieving ELITE program status is truly a testament to our team’s exceptional skill and dedication to providing patients with the best possible care,” says Manish Gupta, M.D., chief and surgical director, Kidney Transplant Program at UPMC Harrisburg. “We are proud to provide central Pennsylvania with access to the highest level of kidney transplant care.”

Achieving ELITE program status requires demonstrating strong performance across a broad range of validated, risk-adjusted metrics. Programs designated as ELITE earn an INTERLINK Performance Model score that is statistically above the national average.

“Success at this level is never coincidental,” says Dr. Richard Freeman, Medical Director at INTERLINK COE Networks and Programs. In my expertise as a transplant surgeon, it reflects the dedication and coordination of a highly skilled team working together in one of the most demanding areas of medicine. Transplant patients are the true beneficiaries of these efforts, particularly when programs such as UPMC Harrisburg offer integrated care before, during, and after transplantation. Your program’s results serve as an inspiring model for others across the transplant community.”

Since 2024, UPMC has partnered with INTERLINK as an addition to its solid organ transplant network. This partnership includes the adult transplant programs at UPMC Presbyterian, pediatric transplant programs at UPMC Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh, and kidney transplantation at UPMC Harrisburg. For more than two decades, INTERLINK has built Centers of Excellence (COE) networks for high-cost, low frequency medical procedures which are used by health plans across the United States.

Eighty-four people received the gift of kidney transplantation at UPMC Harrisburg in 2025. To register as an organ donor or just to learn more about organ donation visit UPMC.com/DonateLife

CAEDC is currently accepting applications for its 2026 Tourism Grant program. Available opportunities include:

- Tourism Partnership Grant: Offers funding from $2,500 to $10,000 for smaller-scale product development projects that expand tourism products, experiences, or services designed to attract overnight visitors to Cumberland Valley.
- Destination Sales Grant: Provides $3,000 to $10,000 for multi-day event expenses, including bid fees, facility or shuttle rentals, speaker or performer fees, and marketing or advertising costs.

Tourism grant applications are reviewed quarterly. The next Tourism Grant Program application deadline is May 8, 2026. Grants are reviewed on a first-come, first-serve basis as funds are available. “CAEDC’s tourism grant program helps turn great ideas into visitor-focused experiences that strengthen Cumberland County’s appeal. By investing in projects that enhance attractions, events, and infrastructure, we’re driving tourism growth, supporting local businesses, and creating lasting economic impact for our community,” said CAEDC’s Director of Tourism and Marketing, Laura Delaney. # SBA Offers Disaster Relief to Pennsylvania Small Businesses and Private Nonprofits Affected by Rainfall

Low interest disaster loans now available

U.S. Small Business Administration

The U.S. Small Business Administration \(SBA\) announced the availability of low interest federal disaster loans to small businesses and private nonprofit (PNP) organizations in Pennsylvania who sustained economic losses caused by the rainfall beginning May 2-July 17, 2025.

The disaster declaration covers the counties of Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Perry and York.

Under this declaration, the SBA's Economic Injury Disaster Loan \(EIDL\) program is available to eligible small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives, nurseries, and PNPs with financial losses directly related to this disaster. The SBA is unable to provide disaster loans to agricultural producers, farmers, or ranchers, except for aquaculture enterprises.

EIDLs are available for working capital needs caused by the disaster and are available even if the small business or PNP did not suffer any physical damage. The loans may be used to pay fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable, and other bills not paid due to the disaster.

“Through a declaration by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture, SBA provides critical financial assistance to help communities recover,” said Chris Stallings, associate administrator of the Office of Disaster Recovery and Resilience at the SBA. “We’re pleased to offer loans to small businesses and private nonprofits impacted by these disasters.”

The loan amount can be up to $2 million with interest rates as low as 4% for small businesses and 3.625% for PNPs, with terms up to 30 years. Interest does not accrue, and payments are not due until 12 months from the date of the first loan disbursement. The SBA sets loan amounts and terms based on each applicant’s financial condition.

To apply online visit sba.gov/disaster. Applicants may also call SBA’s Customer Service Center at (800) 659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance. For people who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability, please dial 7-1-1 to access telecommunications relay services.

The deadline to return economic injury applications is Sept. 29, 2026.
